Mississippi's State Treasurer Is In Deep Trouble.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 29.—(Spl.)—State Treasurer Stowers has been suspended by Governor Longine. Stowers had admitted that $107,000, missing and unaccounted for when the Governor counted the cash Aug. 15, had been deposited in banks, which is forbidden by law. The Jackson banks denied having any of the money on deposit and Stowers' explanation of its whereabouts was not satisfactory to the Governor.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by all druggists, E. Steinbacher & Co., wholesale agents.

CONFETTI.

Midway's Feature
Last Night.Crowd Much Larger Than Night Before.Fun Fast and Furious and More Ease Apparent.The Entertainment Develops Into a Great Success.

The second night of the Pan-American Midway given by the Daughters of the King of St. Paul's Episcopal church was a success that overshadowed the attendance of the first night.

Methods were smoother and an ease was apparent which came of the experience of the night before. The Punch and Judy show was placed in excellent working order for the second night's show and was the center of a crowd of funmakers during the whole of the evening.

The crowd of the night before was almost doubled in size, the band blew itself with commendable earnestness and harmony and the Midway has developed into a success even greater than was hoped for it by the promoters.

Confetti throwing, a usual incident to festivals elsewhere, was introduced at the Midway last night for the first time in Akron. Clouds of paper particles filled the air; members of the merry crowd pelted each other with the multi-colored particles and this feature of the evening caused great quantities of fun.
